

24th Annual Interagency Depository Seminar Registrant Guide

The Registrant Guide for the 2011 Annual Interagency Depository Seminar is now posted.

This week-long event will be held August 1-5 at GPO headquarters in Washington, D.C. Space is limited so sign up now!

Representatives from various Federal agencies—including GPO, the Census Bureau, the Office of the Federal Register, and others—will give overviews of their products during hands-on training sessions, presentations, and tours. Expand your knowledge of U.S. Federal Government information while taking advantage of networking opportunities with fellow information professionals.

There is no fee to attend the seminar; however, advance registration is required. Attendees are responsible for their own expenses for travel, lodging, and meals.

Register to attend and learn more about the Interagency Depository Seminar from the event page.
